*Note that FreedomID™ Theft Protection will only notify and work with "applicable" government agencies. In a situation where the fraud is limited to check fraud, or new accounts being created, there would be no need to contact the I.R.S. However, if an illegal alien is using an eligible customer's social security number (SSN), involving the I.R.S.'s fraud department may be necessary to make sure that the fraud victim isn't responsible for the additional tax burden created by the additional income erroneously reported on their SSN.

Credit Monitoring Provided To Fraud Victims - At the eligible customer's election, enrollment will be for one year of credit monitoring with email alerts, which includes a credit report. Changes in eligible customer's credit file will be monitored to identify fraudulent activity and measure the progress of resolution. Credit products paid by FreedomID™ Theft Protection.

Creation Of A Comprehensive Case File - FreedomID™ Theft Protection provides a comprehensive case file available for eligible customer presentation to company for insurance claims and to law enforcement. FreedomID™ Theft Protection will create a comprehensive case file during the resolution process that documents identified fraud and resolution work. This can be used by law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys to assist the prosecution of perpetrators of identity theft. This case file could also be used if there is a claim filed by a fraud victim with the company for reimbursement pursuant to an identity theft reimbursement or other applicable insurance policy to determine the nature, extent and/or validity of an identity theft claim.

Active Post Fraud Follow Up - Once the case is determined to be "CLOSED", the eligible customer will receive a six (6) month follow up from their fraud specialist to make sure that there is no more activity and that identity resolution has been successful. Since identify-related information is ever growing, there is still the opportunity for an identity thief to commit further fraud once a case has been closed.
